"We live in the information age. Women are able to take charge of their healthcare. They can find out online that hysterectomy is not their only option."

"If you could end up feeling just as well, wouldn't you choose the option that lets you avoid an incision and a 4-6 week recovery period?"

"I treat every patient as if she is my sister or mother. I know that going to the doctor is scary. I'm honored that women are willing to share their concerns with me and that I can help them when they feel most vulnerable."

"Your mother and grandmother put up with a lot of miserable symptoms from their fibroids. I'm here to tell you that you don't have to."

"I'm passionate about helping women avoid surgery if they can."
